Count I

February 6, 2007, Sale of One Firearm

1. Prior to February 6, 2007, a cooperating witness (hereinafter "CW") and a separately charged co-conspirator (hereinafter "CC-7") had numerous conversations concerning the sale of a SKS assault rifle. CC-7 told the CW that the assault rifle would cost the CW $1200.00 but that the CW should tell his buyer that the gun would cost $1350.00 and that the CW and CC-7 would split the extra $150.00 evenly.
2. On or about February 6, 2007, the CW received a telephone call from CC-7 stating that he could not be present for the gun deal, but that the CW should meet up with another individual, defendant ERIC HAYES, a/k/a "Frank White," to complete the purchase. Shortly thereafter, the CW met with the defendant ERIC HAYES, a/k/a "Frank White," at a Burger King restaurant, located at the corner of Franklin Avenue and Heller Parkway, in Newark, New Jersey and purchased one Norinco (North China Industries) 7.62 caliber semi-automatic assault rifle, Model SKS for $1200 in cash. After the CW purchased the assault rifle, the CW received a telephone call from CC-7 who inquired how the deal went, apologized for not being able to be present for the deal, and inquired about the $75.00. Following this call, the CW went to CC-7's residence and paid him the $75 in cash.
3. The Norinco (North China Industries) 7.62 caliber semi-automatic assault rifle, Model SKS sold to the CW by defendant ERIC HAYES, a/k/a "Frank White," and CC-7 on February 6, 2007, was manufactured in China.
4. A review of criminal history records revealed that prior to February 6, 2007, defendant ERIC HAYES had been convicted of a felony offense punishable by a term of imprisonment greater than one year in a court in the State of New Jersey. Refer to paragraph 4 in Count III for specific details.

Count II

June 6, 2007, Sale of One 12 Gauge Shotgun

1. On or about June 5, 2007, the CW met with defendant ERIC HAYES, a/k/a "Frank White," at the Fairview Homes housing complex in Newark, New Jersey and discussed the purchase of a 12 gauge shotgun and a .38 caliber revolver for $1,200.00. They agreed to do the deal the next day.
2. On or about June 6, 2007, the CW received a telephone call from defendant ERIC HAYES, a/k/a "Frank White," that he would bring the gun to the CW after he dropped off his children. Defendant HAYES informed the CW that he was bringing a brand new Mossberg shotgun with "shells" (ammunition) and said the price of the weapon was $500.00. Defendant HAYES also told the CW that he would need to bring a suitcase because the shotgun was long and uncut.
3. On or about June 6, 2007, at approximately 4:38 p.m., CW arrived at a parking lot in Branch Brook Park, in Newark, New Jersey and entered the defendant's vehicle. Inside the vehicle, the CW gave defendant ERIC HAYES $500 in cash in exchange for the shotgun. They then discussed a future purchase of possibly a 30-30 rifle, as well as a "Special K" SKS firearm for only $1,100.00 since the Special K was dirty. The term "dirty" is a street term for a weapon being used in a shooting, homicide or other violent crime. They agreed to meet the next day to purchase either one or both firearms.
4. The firearm the CW purchased from defendant ERIC HAYES on June 6, 2007 was a Mossberg 12 Gauge shotgun, Model 500A, bearing serial number P749087 loaded with seven rounds of 12 Gauge ammunition. This firearm was manufactured in the State of Connecticut.
5. A review of criminal history records revealed that prior to June 6, 2007, defendant ERIC HAYES had been convicted of a felony offense punishable by a term of imprisonment greater than one year in a court in the State of New Jersey. Refer to paragraph 4 in Count III for specific details.

Count III

June 7, 2007, Sale of One SKS Firearm

1. On or about June 7, 2007, the CW and defendant ERIC HAYES confirmed that they would meet at approximately 4:00 p.m. to purchase one or more firearms.

2. At approximately 4:10 p.m., CW arrived at the Branch Brook Park parking lot in Newark, New Jersey. At approximately 4:20 p.m., defendant ERIC HAYES entered the parking lot and the CW went to the back of defendant HAYES vehicle where he received a large brown box that contained an assault rifle. CW paid defendant HAYES $1,100 in cash for the firearm. Shortly thereafter, defendant HAYES left the parking lot and the CW brought the firearm to law enforcement agents.

3. The firearm the CW purchased from defendant ERIC HAYES on June 7, 2007 was a Chinese Type 56, AK-47 fully automatic assault rifle bearing serial number 512690 with one magazine containing 21 rounds of 7.62 caliber ammunition. This firearm was manufactured in China.

4. A review of criminal history records revealed that prior to June 7, 2007, defendant ERIC HAYES had been convicted of a felony offense punishable by a term of imprisonment greater than one year in a court in the State of New Jersey. Specifically, on or about October 31, 2002, defendant ERIC HAYES was convicted in New Jersey Superior Court, Essex County of Distribution of CDS within 1000 feet of School Property, in violation of N.J.S.A. 2C:35-7; and also on or about October 31, 2002, defendant ERIC HAYES was convicted in New Jersey Superior Court, Essex County of another unrelated Distribution of CDS within 1000 feet of School Property, in violation of N.J.S.A. 2C:35-7.

5. Based on my knowledge, training, and experience and that of other ATF agents who have worked on this case, it is my opinion that the three guns sold by defendant ERIC HAYES to the CW are firearms within the meaning of Title 18 U.S.C. Section 921(a)(3).
